

BROCKVILLE MUSEUM ADVISORY COMMITTEE

PURPOSE:

The Advisory Committee advises and supports the role and responsibilities of the City of Brockville's Cultural Services Department as it relates to the Brockville Museum.

Now recruiting: candidates who can bring a diversity of skills, perspectives, experiences, and ideas to the challenges faced by a modern community museum.

COMMITMENT:

- The committee works collaboratively, employing common productivity, work-sharing, and communications applications.
- Meetings are monthly, currently via zoom, and typically last 1-2 hours depending on current initiatives. Members usually engage in 1-3 hours per month on individual and committee assignments.

LEARN MORE:

- Please take the time to review the documents available on our website: Volunteer Program Guide, latest Annual Report, current Strategic Plan, and the 2032 Feasibility Study.
- Interested in speaking with a current committee member? Contact the museum and we'll make an introduction.

museum@brockville.com
613-342-4397

Current Members (2023): Paul Naylor (Chair), David Buck (Vice-Chair), Joan Watt, Deb Hamilton, Hannah Cody, and Katherine Hobbs (Council Representative).

READY TO APPLY?: Apply online through the City Clerk's office scan here to start application

